

"This Month In History"

SEPTEMBER

1916: The British Army uses the offensive tank in battle for the first time amidst World War I. Ushering in a new era of mechanical warfare, the tanks were unrefined and unreliable during their first battles.

1931: The weekly broadcast "15 Minutes With Bing Crosby" debuts, launching the iconic career of the multimedia superstar.

1947: The U.S. Air Force becomes an official branch of the Armed Forces. The Air Force is the second-youngest branch, just ahead of the Space Force, which was established in 2019.

1956: Play-Doh is marketed and sold as a child's toy for the first time! Originally, it was used to remove soot marks from wallpaper.

1960: The first televised debate between two presidential candidates occurs, with John F. Kennedy and Richard Nixon discussing domestic concerns.

1979: ESPN airs their first broadcast, "SportsCenter." The sports news show remains the network's flagship program, with segments playing multiple times a day.

1986: The House of Representatives votes "aye" on the rose resolution. By the end of the year, President Ronald Reagan would declare the rose the national flower of America.

2020: Norman Lear is the oldest person to ever win an Emmy. First setting the record in 2019, the TV writer and producer surpassed himself the next year, when he won an Emmy for outstanding variety special at age 98.

Question: My voice is tender, my waist is slender and I'm often invited to play. Yet wherever I go, I must take my bow, or else I have nothing to say. What am I?
 Answer: A violin.

Our front lobby wall was transformed into a tribute to our community veterans. Veteran and resident Art Hawkinson displays his eagle wood carving as part of the honor wall.

Residents enjoyed an afternoon at the Red Willow County Fair to select their favorite quilt which received a special ribbon from our community.
