Question: With pointed fangs I sit and wait; with piercing force I crunch out fate, grabbing victims, proclaiming might, and physically joining with a single bite. What am I?

Answer: A stapler.

Shoo the Flu

For the maximum protection, it's important to get a flu shot early in the season. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention advises that the flu vaccine is especially critical for people 65 years and older since they are at high risk of developing serious complications from the flu.

Go Orange for Immunity

For an immunity boost, color your meals with orange fruits and vegetables. The bright hue of oranges, cantaloupe, mangoes, carrots, sweet potatoes, butternut squash and pumpkin comes from carotenoids, which are antioxidants that support the immune system and help protect you from disease.

Please Send Us Your E-mail Addresses

Since we have been dealing with COVID, we have tried to keep family informed on what has been happening at Kinship Pointe by mailing letters to family members.

We would like to get as many family member e-mails, as possible, so we can get information to you quickly. You would also be able to get the newsletter sent to your e-mail as well. Please send your e-mail to rosellen@kinshippointe.com or carla@kinshippointe.com. Please state the Resident who is your family member. Thank you.
