Foster Active Living Communities have grown from a rich tradition in senior living with a heartfelt passion for our elders. Our communities that we manage, reflect the values we have held for over 50 years – “that caring for our elders is a privilege and the right thing to do”. Designed to feel like home, our communities offer a gracious lifestyle where our elders can pursue their passions, remain active and be confident that their health, happiness and safety are our top priority. We feel a kinship with our elders and foster that spirit of kinship in all our communities. This provides a place where friends and family gather to enjoy life. A place where our residents needs are anticipated and answered because we know each and every one of them.
